Gift Acceptance Policies

Gift of Adoption Fund (GAF) solicits and accepts gifts for purposes that will help the organization further and fulfill its mission. GAF urges all prospective donors to seek the assistance of personal legal and financial advisors in matters relating to their gifts, including the resulting tax and estate planning consequences. The following policies and guidelines govern acceptance of gifts made to GAF for the benefit of any of its operations or programs.

Gifts Generally Accepted Without Review—

- Cash. Cash gifts are acceptable in any form, including by check, money order, credit card, or in-line. Donors wishing to make a gift by credit card must provide the card type (e.g., Visa, MasterCard, American Express), card number, expiration date, CVV, and name of the card holder as it appears on the credit card.
- Marketable Securities. Marketable securities may be transferred electronically to an account maintained at one of our brokerage firms or delivered physically with the transferor's endorsement or signed stock power (with appropriate signature guarantee) attached. All marketable securities will be sold promptly upon receipt unless otherwise directed by GAF's Finance Committee. In some cases marketable securities may be accepted, for example, by applicable securities laws or the terms of the proposed gift, in such instances the decision whether to accept the restricted securities shall be made by the Finance Committee.
- Bequests and Beneficiary Designations under Revocable Trusts, Life Insurance Policies, Commercial Annuities and Retirement Plans. Donors are encouraged to make bequests to GAF in their wills, and to name GAF as the beneficiary under trusts, life insurance policies, commercial annuities, and retirement plans.
- In-kind gifts to support operations and fundraising events and activities.

Gifts Accepted Subject to Finance Committee Review—Certain forms of gifts or donated properties may be subject to review prior to acceptance. Examples of gifts subject to prior review include, but are not limited to:

- Tangible Personal Property. The Finance Committee shall review and determine whether to accept any gifts of tangible personal property in light of the following considerations: does the property further the organization's mission? Is the property marketable? Are there any unacceptable restrictions imposed on the property? Are there any carrying costs for the property for which the organization may be responsible? Is the relinquishment of the property clear?
- Life Insurance. GAF will accept gifts of life insurance when GAF is named as both beneficiary and irrevocable owner of the insurance policy. The donor must agree to pay, before due, any future premium payments owing on the policy.

Gifts Not Accepted Directly

- Real estate – real estate may be sold with proceeds donated to GAF.
- Cryptocurrency – gifts may be made to benefit GAF through the third party vendor The Giving Block, in partnership with the BBB Wise Giving Alliance.
- GAF does not have a charitable gift annuity program.
