E            A        E                    A
I am an old woman named after my mother

E                    A        (B7 * * * E) E

My old man is another child that's grown old

E                    A        E                    A

If dreams were thunder, lightning was desire

E                    A                    (B7 * * * E) E

This old house would have burnt down a long time ago

E                    D            A                    E

Make me an angel that flies from Montgomery

E                    D            (A * * * E) E

Make me a poster of an old rooster

E                    D            A                    E

Just give me one thing that I can hold on to

E                    A                    (B7 * * * E) E

To believe in this town is just a hard way to go

When I was a young girl I had me a cowboy
He weren't much to look at, just a free ramblin' man
But that was a long time and no matter how I try
The years just flow by like a broken down dam (chorus)

There's flies in the kitchen, I can hear 'em in there buzzin'
And I ain't done nothin' since I woke up today
How the hell can a person go to work in the mornin'
Come home in the evenin' and have nothin' to say? (chorus)
